

Manhattan Coin Club Minutes

August 10, 2021

Club President Randy called the meeting to order. Good turnout and thanks to Matthew O. the meeting was streamed live.

There was one visitor, James, who was there with his son. James collects U.S. coins. Phil W. with his grandson Kain F. Kain collects everything.

Old Business:

Randy reviewed the minutes from the previous meeting and an update was given on Dave's plans. Dave has a location in mind and is currently reviewing the contract. He hopes to be reopened by the end of October.

Treasurer Report:

With Dave absent Randy gave our previous treasury balance of $3,197.70. If you have not paid your dues they are $5 a year for youths, $10 a year for regular members, and a lifetime.

New Business:

1. The next The Wichita Show will be held at the Cessna Activity Center on Aug 20th - 21st, 2021 in Wichita, KS.
 - Dozens of stamp and coin dealers
 - A Special Booth for the Young Collector
 - Personalized help with questions on stamp collecting
 - Stamp exhibits to delight and inform
 - Special event covers will be available.

More information about the show and contact information may be found here; <https://www.istampshows.com/TheWichitaShowCoinStampShow>.

2. The National Coin & Bullion Association, the new trade name for the Industry Council for Tangible Assets, is a 501(c)(6) tax-exempt trade association dedicated to the coins, currency, and precious-metals bullion communities for over 37 years. NCBA exists to promote and safeguard the interests of its members, serving as the industry's watchdog to maintain a favorable legislative and regulatory climate in the United States federal government and individual state governments. The association provides a medium through which its members may confer, consult, cooperate with, and educate governmental and other agencies to solve problems affecting their businesses. NCBA also offers its members assistance and information on new and existing laws and regulations and promotes harmony and cooperation among its members to advance the welfare of the numismatic communities.

3. The American Women Quarters Program is a four-year program that celebrates the accomplishments and contributions made by women to the development and history of our country. Beginning in 2022, and continuing through 2025, the U.S. Mint will issue up to five new reverse designs each year. The obverse of each coin will maintain a likeness of George Washington, but be different from the design used during the previous quarter program. <https://www.usmint.gov/learn/coin-and-medal-programs/american-women-quarters>
4. The Money Museum (money.org/money-museum), operated by the nonprofit American Numismatic Association in Colorado Springs, Colo., announced that it will soon be selling – or deaccessioning, as the practice is known – select items from its collection that are redundant, mostly low-value specimens already well represented. The sales will be conducted on eBay and are anticipated to begin in June. No specimens from the Money Museum's permanent collection will be sold.

Coin Show Update:

Matthew O. reviewed that he is still in the process of contacting dealers and has created a flyer to send to dealers for our coin show which will now be in the National Guard Armory. There will be food trucks.

Future Programs: (Subject to correction)

September: Nick on liberty nickels

October: Tom on post mint damage.

November:

December: Christmas Party

Door Prizes:

No door prizes were awarded as Dave was not there but Nick is owed one from this month.

Program:

Phil W. and his grandson presented a program on error coins.

Following the program and with no further business the meeting concluded and the bid board reopened.
